MINNESOTA RESIDENTS

CONTINUATION OF COVERAGE OPTION FOR MINNESOTA RESIDENTS

If you are a Minnesota resident and your life insurance ends because you are voluntarily or involuntarily terminated or laid off from your employment, you may elect to continue coverage for yourself and your covered Dependents, if any, if the Policy remains in force for active Employees. "Laid off from employment" means your working hours are reduced to the point you are no longer eligible for life insurance under the Policy.

If you elect to continue life insurance coverage, you must pay the Policyholder or its designee for the cost of the insurance. In no event will the amount of premium charged exceed 102 percent of the cost of insurance for such period of coverage for other similarly situated Employees covered under the Policy with respect to whom neither termination nor layoff has occurred, without respect to whether such cost is paid by the Policyholder or the Employee.

Notice

The Policyholder or its designee will inform you within 14 days of the date of your termination of, or layoff from, employment, of:

- your right to elect to continue your current life insurance up to 18 months from the date of termination of your employment or layoff;
- the monthly premium charge to retain the coverage;
- the manner in which and where payments are to be made; and
- the time period in which the payments must be made to retain the continuation coverage.

You will have a 31 day grace period following the premium due date to pay any premium due.

Election Period

You must elect this continuation of coverage on an enrollment form provided by the Policyholder or its designee. You must pay the first premium in full within 60 days from the later of:

- the date your coverage was terminated; or
- the date on which the notice of the right to continue coverage is received.

Written notice of your right to continue coverage will be sent by first class mail to your last known address which you provided to your Employer.

When Continuation of Coverage Ends

Continued coverage will end for you on the earliest of:

- the date you return to employment with the Employer and become eligible for Employee life insurance under the Policy;
- the date you obtain coverage under another group policy;
- the date the continuation period ends;
- the date you terminate coverage for yourself;
- the date the premium grace period ends and you fail to pay the premium due; or
- the date the Policy terminates for any reason.

Continuation coverage under the Policy will end for your Dependent the earliest of:

- the date your coverage ends for any reason;
- the date your Dependent obtains coverage under another group policy;
- the date coverage is reinstated for a Dependent under this Policy;
- the date the continuation period ends;
- the date you terminate coverage for a Dependent;
- the date the premium grace period ends and you fail to pay the premium due for a Dependent; or
- the date Policy terminates for any reason.

Once continued coverage terminates for an Insured Person, coverage will not be reinstated under the Policy.

Life Insurance Conversion Option

When continued coverage ends, except for non-payment of Premium, an Insured Person may elect to apply for conversion insurance. Refer to your life insurance Certificate of Coverage for information on your conversion rights.

Payable Life Insurance Benefit During the Continuation Election Period

A life insurance benefit is payable for an Insured Person who dies during the election period:

- within 60 days after group coverage under the Policy ends; and
- while entitled to continue coverage under this endorsement.

The amount of the benefit is equal to the amount of life insurance benefit that the Insured Person was entitled to continue, less any unpaid Premium owing as of the date of death. It is payable even if you did not apply for continuation. It is payable when we receive Written Proof of death, and we approve the claim.

Disabled Dependent on the Policy Effective Date

If your Dependent is insured under the Prior Plan on the day before the Policy Effective Date, and a Dependent would be subject to the Deferred Effective Date For A Dependent provision, a Dependent's benefits under our plan will be limited to the benefits that would have been payable under the terms of the Prior Plan if it had not terminated, reduced by any benefits paid or payable under the Prior Plan.

While Transfer Coverage is in effect, the amount of coverage will be determined in accordance with the provisions of the plan providing the lesser amount of insurance.

Duplication of Coverage

If you qualify for benefits under the Prior Plan such that a duplication of coverage situation exists after coverage begins under our plan, you must exercise your rights under the Prior Plan and duplicate benefits will not be payable under our plan.

Coverage under our plan will not take effect if your coverage under the Prior Plan is continued under any disability provision or you have enrolled in a conversion plan option with the Prior Plan.

During a period, you are covered under Transfer Coverage, you are not eligible to enroll for portability coverage.

Premium Payments

Premium payments are required for all Insured Persons during the period Transfer Coverage under this provision is in effect. We will not waive Premium during the period Transfer Coverage is continued.

ACCIDENTAL DEATH AND DISMEMBERMENT (AD&D) BENEFITS

This section describes your coverage for Accidental Death and Dismemberment benefits ("AD&D"). The provisions set forth in this section apply to all Accidental Death and Dismemberment Insurance, including the AD&D Additional Benefits section, unless otherwise stated. A person is only eligible for AD&D benefits if AD&D Insurance is in effect for such person at the time of the Accident that caused the Covered Loss. Termination of these benefits will not prejudice the payment of benefits for any Accident that occurred while the benefit was in force.

Accidental Death and Dismemberment Insurance provides financial protection for your Beneficiary by paying a benefit in the event of your accidental death or for you in the event of any other Covered Loss. You must elect Supplemental Plan coverage and pay the Premiums required by the Policyholder to become insured for Supplemental Plan benefits. You must elect coverage for a Dependent and pay the Premiums to become insured for Dependent Supplemental Plan benefits.

No benefit will be paid for a Loss that is the result of, or contributed to by, any AD&D exclusions included in the section entitled Exclusions: Accidental Losses Not Covered By The Policy.

24 HOUR COVERAGE

Coverage under the Policy will pay a benefit for a Covered Loss sustained by an Insured Person subject to the requirements and conditions of this section.

BENEFIT PAYMENTS

If due to an Accident, an Insured Person sustains a Covered Loss described below. Proof of the Injury and Covered Loss must be sent to us. When we receive such Proof, we will review the claim and if we approve it, will pay the insurance in effect on the date of the Accident. Refer to the Claim Information section for information on how to file a claim.

For loss of your life, we will pay benefits to your Beneficiary unless otherwise stated below.

Unless otherwise stated in the Covered Losses below, for any other loss sustained by you, or for any loss sustained by a Dependent, we will pay benefits to you unless another Beneficiary has been elected In Writing.

Covered Losses are described as a percentage of the Principal Sum. The Principal Sum is the full benefit payable by the Policy. The Principal Sum amount is shown in the Schedule of Benefits. The AD&D Covered Loss Schedule below defines the Covered Losses and the benefit payable for each type of Loss.

LIMITATION ON MULTIPLE COVERED LOSSES

If you or a Dependent sustain more than one Covered Loss due to an Injury, the amount we will pay, on behalf of any Insured Person will not exceed the Principal Sum.

ACCIDENTAL DISMEMBERMENT BENEFITS

If Injury to the Insured Person results in any one of the Losses shown in the AD&D Covered Loss Schedule, within 365 days of the date of the Accident that caused the Injury, we will pay the benefit amount as shown on the AD&D Covered Loss Schedule below for that Loss.

A copy of any rider, amendment, or endorsement issued will be provided to the Policyholder for attachment to the Policy and provided to the Certificateholder if the change affects the Certificate.

Beneficiary Designation and Changes

Choosing a Beneficiary

It is important that you name your Beneficiary and keep your designation current. You may name a person or entity as your Beneficiary. A primary Beneficiary is the person(s) or entity you designate In Writing to receive insurance benefits if you should die while you are insured under the Policy.

You may name more than one primary Beneficiary. If you name more than one primary Beneficiary, benefits will be paid out equally unless you stipulate otherwise In Writing.

You may also name a contingent Beneficiary. A contingent Beneficiary will receive the life insurance benefit if there is no living primary Beneficiary at the time of your death.

If no Beneficiary is named, or if no named Beneficiary survives you, we may, at our option, pay:

- up to $500 of your life insurance to any party that we deem is entitled because of their payment of your burial;
- expenses;
- the executors or administrators of your estate; or
- your surviving relatives in the following order:
 - a) all to your surviving spouse; or
 - b) if no spouse, or if your spouse does not survive you, in equal shares to your surviving children; or
 - c) if no child survives you, in equal shares to your surviving parents; or
 - d) your sibling(s).

We will be released from further liability for any amount so paid.

If Your Beneficiary Is A Minor Or Lacks Legal Capacity

The method of payment will differ if your Beneficiary is a minor or a person who lacks legal capacity to give us a valid release for payment of any Death Benefit. We will issue the payment, as permitted by applicable state law as follows:

- to the guardian of your Beneficiary's estate; or
- the custodian of the Beneficiary's estate under the Uniform Transfer to Minors Act; or
- an adult caretaker/legal guardian.

We will be fully discharged of its duties once we have paid your benefit. We are not responsible for how the payment is used.

Changing A Beneficiary

You may change a Beneficiary at any time while you are living. The change must be made by Written request using a form satisfactory to us. Your Written request to change the Beneficiary must be on file with the Policyholder. When the Policyholder receives the change, it will take effect as of the date you Signed it whether you are living or not, unless otherwise specified by you. The change will be subject to any payments CAIC made, or actions taken by us prior to receipt of this notice.

You are the only person who can name or change your Beneficiary. No other person may change your Beneficiary on your behalf, including, but not limited to, any agent under power of attorney, whether durable or non-durable, or other power of appointment unless the appointment specifically states that the agent may change the Beneficiary under this Certificate. You do not need a Beneficiary's consent to make a change unless an irrevocable designation (one that cannot be changed without the consent of the irrevocable Beneficiary) has been made.

CAIC will pay Death Benefits in accordance with the Beneficiary designation on record. Any payment made before the Policyholder receives a request for a Beneficiary change will be made to the previously designated Beneficiary. The change will not apply to any payment made in good faith by us before the change request was recorded by the Policyholder.

Beneficiary For Dependent Insurance

CAIC will pay you as the Beneficiary for Dependent insurance for Life and/or Accidental Death and Dismemberment Insurance, if you are alive. If you are not alive, at our option, we may pay your surviving Spouse if living, or your estate. Any payment made in good faith will discharge our liability to the extent of such payment.

Simultaneous Death

If a Beneficiary dies on the same day you die, or within 24 hours of your time of death, the claim will be paid as if that Beneficiary had died before you.

If you and your Dependent die within a 24 hour period, we will pay all payable benefits under the Policy to your Beneficiary or, we may pay your estate.

We will be fully discharged of our duties once we have paid a benefit. We are not responsible for how the payment is used.

Assignment

You may assign all of your rights, privileges, and benefits under the Policy without the consent of a Beneficiary, unless an irrevocable Beneficiary has been named. The right of any Beneficiary to receive the Death Benefit under the Policy shall be subject and subordinate to the rights of any assignees.

We will recognize the assignee(s) under such assignment as owner(s) of your right, title, and interest in the Policy if:

- a Written form satisfactory to us, affirming this assignment, has been completed;
- the Written form has been Signed by you and the assignee(s);
- the Policyholder acknowledges that the insurance being assigned is in force on the life of the assignor;
- the assignment is not prohibited by applicable law; and
- the Written form is received and registered by us at our home office.

The assignment will take effect as of the date the Written form has been Signed by you, unless otherwise specified by you. CAIC will not be bound by an assignment until we receive and file a Signed copy. The assignee only takes such rights as the assignor possessed and such rights are subject to state and federal laws and the terms of the Policy.

We will not be responsible for the legal, tax or other effects of any assignment, or for any action taken under the Policy's provisions before receiving and registering an assignment. We will also not be responsible for the validity of any assignment.

If you have made an irrevocable Beneficiary designation, the irrevocable Beneficiary must consent In Writing to the assignment.

Conformity with Interstate Insurance Product Regulation Commission Standards

This Certificate was approved under the authority of the Interstate Insurance Product Regulation Commission and issued under the Commission standards. Any provision of the Certificate that on the provision's effective date is in conflict with Interstate Insurance Product Regulation Commission standards is hereby amended to conform to the Interstate Insurance Product Regulation Commission standards as of the provision's effective date.

If the terms and provisions of this Certificate do not conform to any applicable Federal law or regulation, this Certificate will be interpreted to so conform.

Time Limit on Legal Actions

No action at law or in equity shall be brought to recover on the Policy prior to the expiration of 60 days after Proof has been furnished in accordance with the requirements of the Policy. No such action shall be brought after the expiration of the time period provided by the state or jurisdiction in which the Policy was delivered.

Insurance Fraud

We have the right to and will use all means available to us to detect, investigate, deter, and prosecute those who commit insurance fraud. We also have the right to pursue all legal remedies if you and/or the Policyholder perpetrate insurance fraud.

Insurance fraud occurs when you or the Policyholder knowingly and with intent to defraud or deceive us, provide us with false information or file a claim for benefits that contains any false, incomplete, or misleading information, or conceals for the purpose of misleading, information concerning any material fact concerning the coverage sought or payment of benefits.

It is a crime if you or the Policyholder commit insurance fraud and you or the Policyholder may be guilty of a criminal offense and subject to penalties under state law.

Noncompliance With Policy Requirements

Any express waiver by us of any requirements of the Policy will not constitute a continuing waiver of such requirements. Any failure by us to insist upon compliance with any Policy provision will not operate as a waiver or amendment of that provision.

Clerical Error

A purely clerical error, which arises from other than a failure to perform administrative duties hereunder, whether by the Policyholder or us, will not void the insurance of any Insured Person if that insurance would otherwise have been in effect; nor will it extend insurance of such person if that insurance would otherwise have ended or been reduced as provided in the Policy. Clerical error may be, by illustration but not limitation, errors in transcription or computation, but is not, by illustration but not limitation, a failure to advise Insured Persons of procedural requirements.

Misstatement of Facts or Age

If the material facts, including age, of the Insured Person were not accurate in the application to the Policy:

- a fair adjustment of Premium will be made; and

- the true facts, including true age, will decide whether and in what amount of insurance is in force under the Policy.

Incontestability

Any statement made by an Insured Person, will be considered a representation and not a warranty.

No statement made by an Insured Person will be used to reduce or deny any claim or to cancel an Insured Person's coverage unless:

- the statement is In Writing on an enrollment form or Evidence of Insurability form that is Signed by the Insured Person; and
- a copy of that statement is given to the Insured Person, the Beneficiary or legally authorized representative.

No statement made by an Insured Person relating to his or her insurability will be used to contest the insurance for which the statement was made after the coverage has been in force for two years. For any applied for increases in coverage or reinstatement of coverage, a new two-year contestability period is applicable to the amount of the applied for increase or reinstated coverage. Fraudulent statements will be used to contest the insurance for which the fraudulent statement was made if the state where the Certificate was delivered or issued for delivery permits such contests.

No statement will be used to contest the insurance under the Policy unless the statement is material to the risk accepted by us.

Agency

For the purposes of the Policy, the Policyholder acts on its own behalf or as the agent of the Insured Person. Under no circumstances will the Policyholder be deemed the agent of ours without Written authorization.

Non-Participation Policy

The Policy is not entitled to share in surplus distribution.

Electronic Transactions

Any transaction relating to the Policy may be conducted by electronic means if performance of the transaction is consistent with applicable state and federal law. Any notice required by the provisions of the Policy given by electronic means will have the same force and effect as notice given In Writing.

Compliance With Economic Sanctions Law or Regulation

Notwithstanding any other terms under the Policy, we shall not provide coverage nor will we make any payments or provide any service or benefit to any insured, Beneficiary, or third party who may have any rights under the Policy to the extent that such coverage, payment, service, benefit, or any business or activity of an Insured Person would violate any applicable trade or economic sanctions law or regulation.

CLAIM INFORMATION

Notice of Claim

Notice should be given as soon as is reasonably possible after a death. For all other claims, notice of claim must be given to us within 90 days after the date of loss, or as soon thereafter as reasonably possible. Proof of Claim

Proof includes a completed and Signed claim form and Written evidence satisfactory to us that a claimant has satisfied the conditions and requirements for any benefit described in this Certificate. When a claim is made for any benefit described in this Certificate, Proof must establish:

 - (ii) all supporting documentation on which the Physician's certification is based.

Time Limits for Proof

Proof should be sent to us after a loss occurs. The time period Proof must be provided is stated below. Failure to give such Proof within this timeframe will not invalidate or reduce any payable claim if it can be shown that it was not reasonably possible to give Proof within that time, and the Proof was given as soon as reasonably possible. You must provide Proof no later than 1 year after the time Proof is otherwise required, except in the absence of legal capacity.

1. Death Benefit Claim

1 year from date of death.

2. All Other Claims

Notice of claim and Proof, satisfactory to us, must be provided within 90 days of the date of loss. If that is not possible, it must be provided as soon as reasonably possible, but not later than one year after that 90-day period.

If the loss is one for which the Policy requires continuing eligibility for periodic benefit payments, subsequent Proof of eligibility must be furnished at such intervals as we may reasonably require as stated in the specific benefit provision.

Claim Review and Payment

Upon our receipt of Proof, we will review it. We will settle a claim following our receipt of satisfactory Proof and any other information requested relating to the claim and such information is satisfactory to us.

If we approve the claim, we will pay the benefit amount in effect on the date of the loss as follows:

- 30 days for any Covered Loss other than loss for which the Policy provides any periodic payment.
- Payment for all accrued benefits for a Covered Loss for which the Policy provides periodic payments will be paid at the expiration of each period for which the benefit is payable. Any balance remaining unpaid upon termination of our liability will be paid immediately upon receipt of such Proof.

If the Proof is not sufficient to approve the claim, we will send a Written notice to the claimant stating that 1) we are extending the review period for an additional 90 days; or 2) that the claim is denied. If a claim is denied or the review period is extended, the notice will state the reasons for the extension or denial. The notice will also state the information required to complete the claim review, or to appeal a claim denial. Refer to the section entitled Additional Claims Information for more information on the claim review and appeal procedures.

Interest on Death Benefits

Interest will accrue on the amount payable as a claim for life insurance from the date of an Insured Person's death. Such interest will accrue at the rate of interest applicable for funds left on deposit with us.

Additional interest shall accrue at an effective rate of 10% annually, beginning 31 calendar days from the latest of the following until the claim is paid:

- the date that due Proof is received by us;
- the date we receive sufficient information to determine its liability, the extent of the liability, and the appropriate payee legally entitled to the proceeds; and

 - a) the establishment of guardianships and conservatorships;
 - b) the appointment and qualification of trustees, executors, and administrators; and
 - c) the submission of information required to satisfy state or federal reporting requirements.

Physical Examination and Autopsy

At our own expense, we have the right and opportunity to examine the person of any individual whose loss is the basis of claim under the Policy as often as it may reasonably require during the duration of the claim. We may have an autopsy performed at our expense where it is not forbidden by law.

The “Maximum Benefit” paragraph is deleted and replaced with the following:

Maximum Benefit

If your Dependent is entitled to convert due to one of the reasons listed in the “Entitled to Convert When the Policy or Your Eligible Class Has Been Terminated” paragraph above, the maximum amount of Dependent life insurance that may be converted under this provision is limited to the lesser of:

- 1) the amount of your group life coverage in force under the Policy on the date of termination, reduced by the amount of any other group life coverage that you become eligible for within 31 days of termination of coverage under the Policy; and
- 2) $10,000.

If your Dependent is entitled to convert due to one of the reasons listed in the “Entitled to Convert When the Policy or your Eligible Class Has Not Been Terminated” paragraph above, then the maximum amount of insurance that may be elected to convert to the new policy is the amount of life insurance on that Dependent that ends under this certificate, minus the amount of any other group life insurance for which you become eligible for during the Conversion Period.

If any portion of a Dependent’s life insurance is not converted during the Conversion Period, you or the Dependent will not have the right to convert additional insurance at a later date.

This Endorsement applies to the Eligible Class(es) stated above. All other provisions in the Policy and Certificate remain valid. Nothing herein contained shall be held to vary, waive, alter, or extend any of the terms, conditions, or provision of the Policy or your Certificate other than as herein stated.

This Endorsement terminates when the Policy or your insurance terminates in accordance with the cancellation provisions stated in your Certificate.

Signed for the Company at its Home Office,

Virgil R. Miller, President

Applicability of ERISA

If this Policy provides benefits under a plan which is subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), the following provisions apply.

Information about your ERISA plan

The benefits are provided in a fully insured plan issued by Continental American Insurance Company, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Aflac Incorporated, and are described in the Certificate of Coverage.

You have certain rights and protections under ERISA.

1. The right to receive information about your plan and its benefits.

- a. You have the right to review and the right to receive, free of charge, at the Plan Administrator's office (or in a place designated by the Plan Administrator all documents governing the plan, including but not limited to, insurance contracts or a copy of the latest annual report (Form 5500). The Form 5500 is filed by the plan with the U.S. Department of Labor (DOL) and is available in the Public Disclosure Room of the Employee Benefits Security Administration.
- b. You have the right to receive an annual summary of the plan's financial report.

2. The right to prudent action by the plan fiduciaries.

ERISA imposes duties upon the people who are responsible for the operation of the Employee benefit plan. The people who operate your plan, called "fiduciaries" of the plan, have a duty to do so prudently and in the interest of you and other plan participants and beneficiaries. No one, including your Employer, your union, or any other person, may fire you or otherwise discriminate against you in any way to prevent you from obtaining a welfare benefit or exercising your rights under ERISA.

3. How to enforce Your rights.

- a. If your claim for a benefit is denied or ignored, in whole or in part, you have a right to know why this was done, to obtain copies of documents relating to the decision without charge, and to appeal any denial, all within certain time schedules.
- b. Under ERISA, there are steps you can take to enforce your rights. For instance, if you request a copy of plan documents or the latest annual report from the plan and do not receive them within 30 days, you may file suit in a federal court. In such a case, the court may require the Plan Administrator to provide the materials and pay you up to $110 a day until you receive the requested materials, unless the materials were not sent because of reasons beyond the control of the Plan Administrator.
- c. If you have a claim for benefits which is denied or ignored, in whole or in part, you may file suit in a state or Federal court. You are required to complete administrative appeals prior to filing in court. Your right to file suit in state or Federal court may be affected if you do not complete the required appeals.
- d. If it should happen that plan fiduciaries misuse the plan's money, or if you are discriminated against for asserting your rights, you may seek assistance from the U.S. Department of Labor, or you may file suit in a Federal court. The court will decide who should pay court costs and legal fees. If you are successful, the court may order the person you have sued to pay these costs and fees. If you lose, the court may order you to pay these costs and fees, for example, if it finds your claim is frivolous.

4. Need help?

- a. If you have any questions about the plan, please contact the Plan Administrator.
- b. If you have any questions about your rights under ERISA, or if you need help getting documents from the Plan Administrator, contact the nearest office of the Employee Benefits Security Administration (EBSA) or the Division of Technical Assistance and Inquiries, EBSA, U.S. Dept. of Labor, 200 Constitution Ave. N.W., Washington, DC 20210.
- c. Certain publications about your ERISA rights and responsibilities can be found by calling the EBSA publications hotline or visiting dol.gov/ebsa.

Claim Procedures

How to File a Claim

Follow the claim procedures described in the insurance Certificate. The claimant should complete the claim form and return it to us with the required Proof as instructed in the claim form. No benefits will be paid until satisfactory Proof is received. Proof must be provided at the claimant's expense.

Claims Review for Disability

We will give notice of the decision no later than 45 days after the claim is filed. This time period may be extended twice by 30 days if we determine that such an extension is necessary due to matters beyond the control of the plan and we notify you of the circumstances requiring the extension of time and the date by which we expect to render a decision. If such an extension is necessary due to your failure to submit the information necessary to decide the claim, the notice of extension will specifically describe the required information, and you will be afforded at least 45 days within which to provide the specified information. If you deliver the requested information within the time specified, any 30-day extension period will begin after you have provided that information. If you fail to deliver the requested information within the time specified, the decision will be made with the information we have in the file.

Claim Review for Non-disability Claims

We will review the claim promptly after we receive all information needed to evaluate the claim. We will notify the claimant of our decision to approve or deny the claim.

A decision will be made within a reasonable period but no later than 90 days after receipt a properly filed claim. This time period may be extended by 90 days if we determine that special circumstances require an extension if prior to the beginning of the extension period, we notify the claimant In Writing of the special circumstances and give the date we expect to render a decision. If extended, a decision will be made no more than 180 days after the claim was received. If we approve the claim, the decision will contain information sufficient to reasonably inform the claimant of that decision.

Adverse Benefit Determination

An adverse benefit determination means a denial, a reduction, a termination or rescission of coverage, or a failure to provide or make payment for a benefit. If a claim is denied, this is considered an adverse benefit determination. The adverse benefit determination notice will include the following:

- the specific reason(s) for the determination;
- reference to specific plan provision(s) on which the determination is based;
- when necessary, a description of additional material or information needed to complete the claim and why such information is necessary;
- a statement that the claimant is entitled to receive upon request, and without charge, reasonable access to or copies of all documents, records, or other information relevant to the claim for benefits;
- identification of any internal rule, guideline, protocol, or standard relied on for the claim determination;
- the plan procedures and time limits for appealing; and
- the right to obtain information about the appeal procedures and the right to bring a lawsuit under ERISA following an adverse determination from us on appeal, including the limitation that any such lawsuit is brought no later than 3 years from the time Proof of claim was required.

Right to appeal if there is an Adverse Benefit Determination

You or someone you name to act for you (authorized representative) may file an appeal. If someone files an appeal on your behalf, you must let us know that you have appointed this person as your authorized representative. Your appeal must be In Writing and sent to us. When you send your appeal, you may include Written comments, documents, records, or other information related to your claim. You have the right to one appeal.

Time Frame for Disability Claims

You have 180 days from the receipt of notice of an adverse benefit determination to file an appeal. Requests for appeals should be sent to the address specified in the claim denial. The appeal for Premium waiver will be reviewed, and a determination notice will be sent within 45 days of receiving the appeal. Sometimes, it will take longer to review the appeal because additional information is needed to make a decision. If this happens, within 45-days, we will let you know that an extension is necessary and the reason for the extension. The review period may be extended twice, 90 days in total. If an extension is given to give you more time to submit information necessary to decide the appeal, the letter we send will tell you what is needed. You will be given 45-days to provide the information. The extension of time to review the information will begin after the requested information is received. If you fail to send the requested information, the appeal will be decided based on the information we have at the end of the 45 days.

Time Frame for Non-Disability Claims. A final decision will be made no more than 60 days after we receive an appeal. Sometimes, it will take longer to review the appeal because additional information is needed to make a decision. If this happens, we will notify you In Writing of the special circumstance and give the date a decision is expected. If extended, a decision will be made no more than 120 days after the appeal was received by us.

Appeal Review. The appeal will be reviewed by someone who did not make the initial decision. The appeal reviewer will not give consideration to the initial decision.

Appeal Decision. We will send a notice of the appeal decision. Notice may be provided in Written or electronic form. Electronic notices will be provided only when you give your consent to receive the notice. The appeal determination will include the following:

- the specific reason(s) for the determination. Reference to specific plan provision(s) on which the determination is based;
- a statement that you are entitled to receive upon request, and without charge, reasonable access to or copies of all documents, records, or other information relevant to the claim for benefits; and
- your right to obtain information about the appeal procedures and the right to bring a lawsuit under ERISA following an adverse determination from us on appeal, including the limitation that any such lawsuit is brought no later than 3 years from the time Proof of claim was required.

Requirement to File an Internal Appeal before Filing a Lawsuit

If your claim is denied, in whole or in part, after you have completed the appeal procedure, you may file a civil action in federal court under ERISA.
